1. Memory Verse: Joshua 1:9

"Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. "

4. What is the first thing Noah did upon leaving the ark? He built an altar and offered a blood sacrifice to God.
5. How long did Noah live after the Flood? 350 years.
6. After 1657 years God was going to change man's diet to include? meat of animals and birds and fish.
7. There was one restriction to this new diet. You cannot eat the blood.
8. After the Flood, God instituted a civil law that would be a great deterrent to capital crimes. What was it?
Capital Punishment, death penalty.
9. Skeptics have attacked the Flood record given in the Bible as being incorrect, by stating the following error. They claim that the Flood waters were 15 cubits (22 -1/2"), in Genesis 7:20, above the mountains of Ararat (8:4); which are approximately 17,000 feet above sea level, where the ark rested. Mt. Everest, in Tibet and Nepal, is about 26,000 feet above sea level, being the highest mountain. Therefore, the Flood waters stopped 9,000 feet short of covering the highest mountains; and, proving two errors in the Bible. i.e.,
 - (1). The Flood was not universal.
 - (2). Not all flesh died, as Genesis 7:21 states; as nothing was destroyed within the 9,000 feet from the Flood waters to the top of Mt. Everest.

Refute this claim.

The Bible in Genesis 7:20 does not say the waters were 22-1/2 feet above Mt. Ararat; but, rather, above the mountains, which includes all mountains, including Mt. Everest, the highest. The contradiction is in the skeptics minds; not the Word of God.

10. Noah's three sons were Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
 - (1). From Shem's line came the yellow race.
 - (2). From Ham's line came the black race.
 - (3). From Japheth's line came the white race.

 - (2). Man can eat the meat of animals, birds, and fish.
 - (3). Animals will now fear man.
 - (4). Capital punishment.
 - (5). The rainbow as a sign.

12. Some scholars say this is not the first time the rainbow has appeared. Is this true or false?

13. In Genesis 9:20,21, Noah drank of the wine and got drunk; but there is no record of God's rebuke. Why?
Fermentation was here for the first time.

14. Ham entered his father's tent and saw him naked. Why did not God curse Ham instead of his son, Canaan? There was no premeditation, he accidentally saw his father's nakedness.

15. Many people of the past, and still today, believe that God's curse upon Canaan is the curse upon the black people. Why do they believe this? They falsely believe that he migrated to Africa.
